

INTERNATIONAL UNION
OF RAILWAYS

JOB DESCRIPTION
Position	Signalling Engineer
IDENTITY OF THE EMPLOYEE
Job Title	Signalling Junior Advisor
Seniority	At least 8 years of work experience in the railways signalling area
Position in the organisation chart	Rail System Department
MAIN DUTIES
Main Duty	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Work on signalling projects, under coordination of a senior advisor. ○ Collaborate with other signalling experts, also in international committees. ○ Support work on EU-projects
Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Support the expert groups on signalling. ○ Maintain and overview of progress of the activities in the CCS (Command Control and Signalling) Sector. ○ Participation in various UIC Signalling projects and working groups and provide the necessary support for their accomplishment. ○ Assist in the senior adviser signalling ○ Support the UIC activities in the EU-Funded Collaborative R&D Projects. ○ Assist senior adviser for preparation of new project proposals, defining priorities and strategies, objectives, organisation, planning of schedules, tasks and deliverables. ○ Assist senior technical advisor on maintenance of UIC documents (leaflets, IRS, etc.) ○ Interact with other UIC departments.
Technical areas of activities	Railways signalling systems, including Train Detection, Interlocking, Automatic Block, Traffic Control Centres, ERTMS(ETCS) and other modern train control system, signalling equipment maintenance, etc.

