

Biography Sohn

Mr SOHN, Myoung Won has a degree of civil engineering in the catholic university of America, Washington DC.

He is currently the chairman of project financing and real estate development at Zenith Partners Korea Co. Ltd. He has been professor of Sookmyung Women's university about transnational corporation and global investment.

He has worked in the Ssangyong Group as president and CEO of Ssangyong Motor company.

He was also the President and CEO of Hyunday Mipo Dock Yard in the ship building, repair and conversion.

He is member of Tau Beta Pei (Engineering Honor Society) and President of Civil Engineering Society of the Catholic University of America.

Brief Description of the Presentation

Event title	: NEXTSTATION MOSCOW 2013
Presentation date	: 17-18 October, 2013
Presenter	: Mr. M.W. Sohn, Chairman, Zenith Partners Korea Co., Ltd.
Presentation title	: Transfer Center Complex(TCC) Development in Korea
Number and session name	: 1A: Governance and financing: a new approach
Brief Introduction of the Presentation	This presentation is a introduction to Korean model of developing a Transfer Center Complex(TCC), which is viewed as "Next Station" in Korea. As a number of private vehicles is rapidly growing in metropolitan areas, attracting travelers into public transportation facilities is a major task of Korean as well as Russian government. In this presentation, presenter highlights the TCC as a next-generation transportation hub and offers a number of TCC development proposals based on Korean experience of transportation policy implementation.